

Suits That Appeal to Your Sense of Value

Correct—smart—stylish. Yes, of course. That is important, but it is only half the battle. Stylishness is the element that takes your eye, but thing that keeps your trade is—Value. With this in mind, we have assembled for your selection the best "buys" in clothing that the world offers—one-hundred-cents-on-the-dollar value in warp and wool wear. No matter what the price, the price is the lowest. Suits in every popular fabric, color and pattern—for every kind of taste—for young men and older men—slender or stout. It's easy here to find a suit to please yourself.

When a boy arrives at the long pants age the problem of clothing him is one that needs a good deal of care. He is a boy still, not quite a young man. Something betwixt and between in style is needed for this intermediate age, and we have arrived at a solution of the problem which, we know, spells satisfaction, both to the boy and his parents.

BILIOUS ATTACKS.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its function. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.—Advt.

In the pushing of business there are no holidays.

The Debutante's Gorgeous Frock

Design by Reed & Co., New York.

SILK cloth and lace with blue and white, delicately draped gracefully over a foundation of flesh colored stuff richly embroidered with silver sequins—gives this handsome dance frock. The shoulder straps are also sequined. Parting sections of silver lace over the hips and the court lady's fan are interesting details.

Pale gray veils are very smart, but should be avoided by women with colorless skins. Brown veils are unattractive except when the hair is very gray. Most becoming of all is the white veil with black hand run threads or a small black leaf design. This veil may be had in seagull and open lattice mesh and with narrow border patterns.

A skirt is made entirely of small ruffles and the sleeves to match. This is a charming frock if the combination is laid together with a bodice cut in simple, except for a touch of embroidery.

Spending Money to Reduce Selling Prices

If you were to give a large entertainment, you wouldn't go out personally and deliver a hundred or so invitations verbally, would you? Of course, you would have them printed or engraved and mailed to your guests. You would in this way spend money to save money and time, which is also money. Any man who has anything to sell has the problem of getting his invitation to buy before the largest possible number of prospective buyers.

The larger the number he interests, the more units he can make, and the lower his producing cost descends. So he takes the quickest method of reaching a large number of people—printing, advertising. If anyone tells you he is able to sell you his goods at a lower cost because he had no advertising expense, laugh at him.

Advertising reduces sales expense, because a single advertisement calls on thousands, while a salesman can call on one or two. Advertising reaches an individual at less than 1 per cent of the cost of telling the story to that person in any other way. Advertising increases the keenness of competition so that prices are forced downward.

It would not be possible to produce a lead pencil for two cents, a tube of paste for ten cents, a collar for twelve and a half cents, were it not for the force of advertising in creating a wide demand, permitting quantity production and labor-saving machinery, thus cutting costs. There are other reasons why you should insist on the advertised product.

The purpose of most advertising is to establish the reputation of a name. In order to live up to that reputation, definite standards of quality must be maintained in the product. It must live up to the claims of the advertisement. Faking or misrepresentation cannot stand the light of publicity.

Advertising is your protection and safeguard. It points out the lines of goods of whose quality you can be sure.
